

Northport-East Northport Public Library

Map and Atlas Collection Index

Items listed in this index are housed in the five-drawer map cabinet located in the reference room of the Northport Public Library building. This index lists details of each map including title, map size and accession number (if available). Some entries also include a hyperlink which directs to an online digital version of the resource.

This list was compiled and organized by Robert Anen, the Project Archivist of the Long Island Library Resources Council in early Fall 2022 as part of the Accessing Archives Project.
Updated March 2024 by local history librarian.
