presents GUILTY CONSCIENCE

Friday, January 15

Arthur Jamison is a renowned criminal lawyer. His current litigation, divorce from his wife, will leave him financially devastated, so Arthur plots to kill

The Great South Dixieland Jazz Band has performed for more than a decade in clubs and concert halls throughout the Tri-State Area, sharing the stage with the likes of Zoot Sims, Roy Eldridge, Milt Hinton, Dizzy Gillespie, and many other giants of jazz.

The leader of the group is Mike Carubia, a talented trumpet player and arranger who plays in a variety of jazz styles including swing and be-bop. His playing, at times reminiscent of Billy Butterfield and Louis Armstrong, is the catalyst that sparks the ensemble into that swinging interplay characteristic of the great Dixieland bands of the 40's and 50's.
