Meeting Friends For Our Future

The Northport-East Northport Public Library's charter group of Friends For Our Future was launched at a meeting on Thursday evening, May 13. Group members shared feelings on why they responded to the library's call for "Friends," expressed thoughts on the library's expansion needs, and recalled the importance of public libraries in their childhood. A sense of camaraderie and shared purpose charged the meeting room that evening. In the words of our "Friends:"

"The library makes my life fuller and because of this, I want to give something in return."

Dorothy Sammis

"I'm here to express my wishes that the library remain as useful in the future as it has been in the past."

Dan Fishstein

"For me, going to the library is like going into Tiffany's and being able to buy anything I want."

Lillian Caring

"The library is an important part of my life and I want to give toward the library's future."
