COMPUTER NEWS

WHERE IN THE LIBRARY IS CARMEN SANDIEGO?

Carmen Sandiego is hiding out in the Children's Rooms where you can capture her in the computers. With our computer software collection you can also travel the Oregon Trail, improve your Tetris skills, rescue Little People, play with dinosaurs, create funny faces, go bowling and/or type a report for school.

Did you know that in Children's Services:

- we have Apple IIs computers (2 in Northport and 1 in East Northport), each with a mouse, joystick, a 3.5" disk drive, a 5.25" disk drive and an ImageWriter II printer;
- our software collection presently contains 179 titles of both educational and recreational programs for Pre-K to 6th grades
- we offer computer assistance and instruction;
- reservations are accepted for computer time.

REWARD!

CARMEN SANDIEGO

WANTED FOR GRAND

CAPTURED

You can also catch Carmen and her international gang of thieves in the YA/Career Computer at the PC Station and at East Northport. The newest Carmen Sandiego geography adventure is entitled Where in America's Past is Carmen Sandiego? Her other programs on computer are Where in Europe is Carmen Sandiego? and Where in Time is Carmen Sandiego?, Where is the USA is Carmen Sandiego?, and Where in the World is Carmen Sandiego?

THE LURE OF LONG ISLAND

LIVING IN: Northport & East Northport

The recent arrival at the Reference Desk of comprehensive population data on the Northport-East Northport area from Donnelley Marketing Services and the 1990 U.S. Census calls attention to the wealth of information about our community that is held in the library.

Newspapers, newsletters, board minutes, government documents, directories, indexes, maps, charts, demographic data, and information files are all on hand to meet the needs of the newcomer learning about his neighborhood, the businessperson planning to open a retail operation, the student completing an assignment on developments in recycling, and the resident keeping informed about Village Board activities. All library users, whatever their concerns or interests, will be able to use the variety of materials provided by the Northport-East Northport Public Library.

NEWSPAPERS, NEWSLETTERS: THE LONG ISLANDER, THE NORTHPORT JOURNAL, THE OBSERVER, & THE RECORD. These four weekly newspapers provide thorough coverage of events, present and future, and current issues in the community. The library owns THE LONG ISLANDER from 1939 to the present, THE NORTHPORT JOURNAL from 1941 to the present, THE OBSERVER from 1956 to the present, and THE RECORD from 1991 on. Some earlier issues of THE NORTHPORT JOURNAL and THE OBSERVER are also represented. Past years' papers are on microfilm and indexed loosely by THE OBSERVER's "The Year in Review."

NEWSDAY Long Island's newspaper is another basic source of Northport-East Northport news. Also available at the library, it is subject and name indexed by an online database service.

HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS VERTICAL FILE:

This clipping and pamphlet file focuses on the history and current concerns of the area. Copies of the educational surveys published by NEWSDAY, articles on local residents, and newspaper clippings covering village and school elections, the Huntington Resource Recovery Facility, and the Larkfield Revitalization Project all find their way into this file.

NORTHPORT NOTES . . . NORTHPORT VILLAGE RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION. The bi-monthly newsletter of this civic organization is a comprehensive source of information about village issues. It reports the activities of the Board of Trustees, the Zoning Board, and the Architectural and Historical Review Board.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT RECORDS: NORTHPORT VILLAGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETING MINUTES, 1989 —. The library receives copies of all Northport Village Board minutes. Read about the updated law regulating dock fees or learn who's getting married at the park gazebo.

VILLAGE AND TOWN BUDGETS. Track your tax dollar through these annual compilations of expenditures and receipts.

THE CODE OF THE VILLAGE OF NORTHPORT, N.Y. AND THE CODE OF THE TOWN OF HUNTINGTON. The official, codified ordinances, supplemented by zoning maps.

OFFICIAL COMPILATION CODES, RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, 9 EXECUTIVE (B). Turn to this volume for the applicable building codes.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENTS AND OTHER GOVERNMENT REPORTS. The library is a depository for all documents related to changes in land use or zoning in the district, that are generated for the government. THE DRAFT GENERIC ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT FOR THE PROPOSED UPDATE OF THE TOWN OF HUNTINGTON COMPREHENSIVE PLAN is one recent addition.

VOTER REGISTRATION FORMS AND ABSENTEE BALLOT APPLICATIONS. These forms are available for library, village, and general elections.

SCHOOL DISTRICT PUBLICATIONS: BOARD OF EDUCATION, NORTHPORT-EAST NORTHPORT UNION FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT MINUTES. Keep informed about the deliberations of the school board through the packet of materials that arrives monthly at the Reference Department.

NORTHPORT HIGH SCHOOL YEARBOOKS, 1935 —. High school highlights, year by year.

NAUTICAL DATA : Being the "north port" library, all the local angles are covered for anglers and boaters: tide and current tables, nautical almanacs and charts, marinas and fishing grounds. Find them in the BOATING ALMANAC, ANGLERS' GUIDE TO THE UNITED STATES ATLANTIC COAST, ELDRIDGE TIDE and PILOT BOOK, WATERWAYS GUIDES, and the periodical, THE FISHERMAN: LONG ISLAND, METROPOLITAN NEW YORK EDITION.

GEOGRAPHY, POPULATION STATISTICS, MAPS: Trace the contours of the community from Eatons Neck Point to Stoothoff Road on U.S. Geological Survey and N.Y. Department of Transportation topographic maps; consult the Hagstrom street maps located at the Reference desk to navigate points in-between.

DIRECTORIES, QUICK REFERENCE SOURCES: DUN'S REGIONAL BUSINESS DIRECTORY AND DUN'S MICROCOSM NASSAU/SUFFOLK . Both can be searched by zip code, industry classification code, or by company name and are powerful tools for assessing the competition or preparing marketing lists.

1990 U.S. CENSUS AND DONNELLEY DEMOGRAPHICS. As noted above the library has the available data for the 1990 census tracts in the district. When census figures are not available, try DONNELLEY'S DEMOGRAPHICS PROFILES for zip codes 11768 and 11731. Donnelley gives actual census counts, estimates, and projections of population and income by age. Statistics on industries, occupation, travel time to work, level of education, marital status, and working mothers are also provided. The library has computer access to this information, which allows for up-to-date tabulations as released.

THE ABMS COMPENDIUM OF CERTIFIED MEDICAL SPECIALISTS. The directory includes local board certified physicians, listed by town and within a specialty area. The citations give schooling and post-degree training and affiliations.

TELEPHONE BOOKS. Along with the NYNEX white and yellow pages, the library owns the "little" YELLOW BOOK COMMUNITY TELEPHONE DIRECTORIES from 1959 to the present.

THE SUFFOLK SOURCEBOOK AND THE DIRECTORY OF COMMUNITY SERVICES. These two works are invaluable guides to organizations and services, from senior citizen programs to the Larkfield Little League, available to the residents of the Northport-East Northport community.

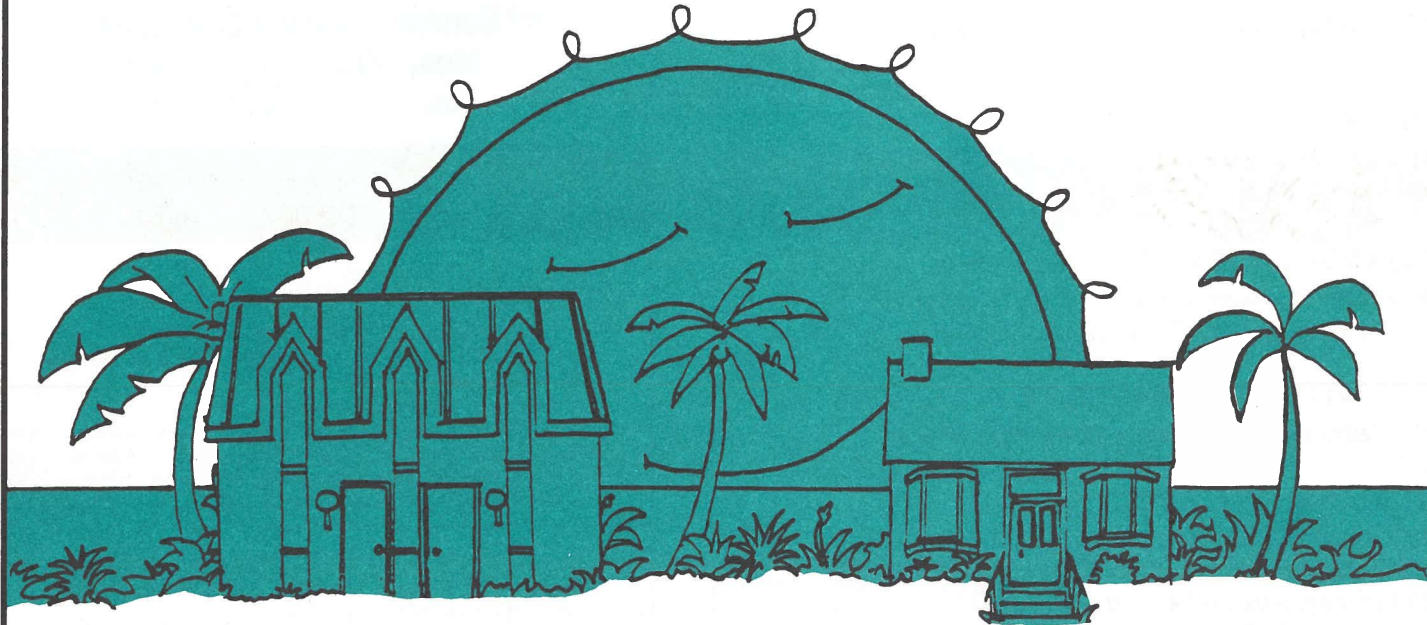

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ASSOCIATIONS. When unable to locate a local organization in a particular field directly, use this reference tool. It can be used to identify the national organization, which in turn, can usually supply the name and address of its local chapter.

REFERENCE DESK INFORMATION FILES: To support residents' varied interests and needs, the reference staff maintains extensive files of names, addresses and telephone numbers of local government agencies, social services, organizations, and clubs, as well as calendars of forthcoming events and public transportation schedules.

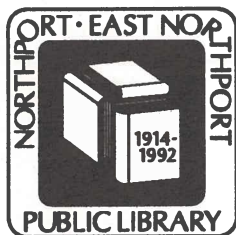

For assistance with any questions related to the community or about the use of any of the above resources, stop by or call the Reference Desk in either the Northport building or in the East Northport branch. We'll be happy to help!
