ART OF LONG ISLAND

Tuesday, November 10, 7:30 p.m.

For almost three hundred years, Long Island has been well served by artists, architects, writers, and poets. Elliot Rabner, noted art lecturer, will trace Long Island's artistic heritage, exploring the contributions of realistic painter William Sidney Mount, architect Louis Comfort Tiffany, the Abstract Expressionists Jackson Pollack and Willem de Kooning, and many others. All are welcome to this free lecture.

YOU CAN'T DO IT ALL: IDEAS THAT WORK FOR MOTHERS WHO WORK

Thursday, November 12, 7:30 p.m.

More women than ever are combining careers, marriage and motherhood. But working mothers commonly find that they come home from work only to start working at home. Irvina Siegel Lew, author of You Can't Do It All: Ideas That Work For Mothers Who Work, will offer advice on dealing with the practical and emotional demands of household management while balancing work outside the home. Ms. Lew, a teacher, wife, and mother of three, is currently the national spokesperson for Ziploc storage bags for whom she prepared the Mom's Survival Guide. Her articles on child care, home management, and women's issues have appeared in The Ladies Home Journal, Family Circle, Good Housekeeping, The New York Times, and Newsday.

THE HARBOUR WIND QUINTET

Sunday, November 15, 2:00 p.m.

The Harbour Wind Quintet, which was formed in 1984, has played in churches, schools and private homes throughout Long Island. The group features Deborah Gates, flute; Shirley Rush, oboe; Dale Blumenthal, clarinet; Christine Zacher, horn; and Richard Johanson, bassoon. Most recently, the quintet was selected to perform at the opening of the Heckscher Museum's "Waterworks" exhibit. Tickets for this recital are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens, and handicapped persons. Ticket sales begin Nov. 7.

MOHAWK PLAYERS PRESENT A PERFECT PARTY

Friday, November 6, 8:30 p.m.

A "now comedy" for all time. Produced by Playwrights Horizons in 1986 for New York's discerning off-Broadway audience, the play became an acknowledged Gurney triumph. Never has American society been skewered with greater wit or caressed with fonder affection. An adult valentine, this premier showing on Long Island is directed by Donn Schrader. Tickets are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens, and handicapped persons.

CARING COUPLES: WINNING AT LOVE AND MARRIAGE

Wednesday, November 18, 7:30 p.m.

Learn guidelines that will help you tap your natural potential for an even better relationship. Drs. Evelyn and Paul Moschetta will share findings from their research with couples in successful marriages. The Drs. Moschetta are co-authors of the book Caring Couples: Inside The Vital-Total Relationship, which the library owns. They also co-host cable TV's Love & Marriage program. They both hold Doctorates in Social Welfare from Yeshiva University and have been practicing marriage counselors since 1972. Reservations are suggested for this program. Please call the Northport Library at 261-6930.

THE OTHER VIC THEATRE COMPANY PRESENTS LUNCH HOUR

Friday, November 20, 8:30 p.m.

Jean Kerr's clever, stylish comedy concerns a man and woman whose spouses are having an affair, and who have to counter by inventing an affair of their own. He is a marriage counselor and a bit square; she is kind of kooky. Can their ruse work? Can they win back their respective spouses? Tickets, which go on sale Nov. 7, are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens, and handicapped persons.

NOVEL IDEAS

The Novel Ideas book discussion group will meet this month on Friday, November 13 at 1:00 p.m. to discuss Fay Weldon's The Life and Loves of a She-Devil. Copies of the book are available at the Reference Desk. If you have any questions, call Dodie Gillman, Reference Librarian, at 261-6930. Join us!

DEFENSIVE DRIVING COURSE

CONQUERING THE COLLEGE ESSAY AND INTERVIEW

Monday, November 16, 7:30 p.m.

Attention high school juniors and seniors! College admissions time is here, and so is help. Come to this informative program to learn how to master the college interview and write the most attention-getting essay. Dianne Nostrand, a Northport High School graduate who is now an admissions officer at C.W. Post College, will guide you through the admissions steps and offer advice on what works and what doesn't.

APPETIZERS AND DESSERTS FOR THANKSGIVING

Thursday, November 19, 7:30 p.m.

Contribute to this year's Thanksgiving feast with a special treat from Mary Ellen Mendelsohn's cooking class. Participants will learn how to make several types of delicious appetizers, a traditional autumn soup, and a favorite of all ages — grasshopper pie. Young adults and adults are invited to attend. Please register at the Northport Library beginning Nov. 5.

LIBRARY JOINS HIGH SCHOOL TO CELEBRATE THE CONSTITUTION

The library's Young Adult Department presented a display on the First Amendment as part of the Northport High School's Bicentennial Observance Day on September 16. Students were invited to pick up copies of bibliographies on the Constitution and on notable books which have been banned by various groups at one time or another in our history. The theme of the exhibit stressed the necessity for each generation of Americans to guard against censorship by defending the First Amendment, specifically the freedom to read.
