Public Library

*Calendar
January 1986*

NEW VIDEOS

The Library's ever-expanding videocassette collection includes old movie classics, such as Dinner at Eight, Gold Rush, Gaslight, and Cabin in the Sky as well as new movies such as Beverly Hills Cop, Ghostbusters, and Adam. You can look forward to titles that are on order - such as Mask, Fletch, and Breakfast Club - which should be arriving soon!

STRESS MANAGEMENT

Tuesday, January 14, 7:30 p.m.

No matter what form it takes, stress results in pressure, uncertainty and loss of a sense of control over events. It affects job performance, social relationships and the personal well-being of millions of Americans.

Psychotherapist Peter Stag will discuss stress theory, identification of stress in the individual and stress management techniques. He will also touch on the experimental use of hypnosis in stress control. Admission is free.

CUT & PIERCED SUNCATCHER WORKSHOP

Wednesday, January 22, 7:30 p.m.

Catch the winter sun with a lovely cut and pierced suncatcher to hang in your window. Linda Windsor will teach the simple technique, which is the same one used to create those beautiful pierced lampshades you've seen. There will be a $2.50 materials fee. Please register beginning Jan. 8.

INVESTING IN REAL ESTATE THROUGH A LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

Wednesday, January 15, 7:30 p.m.

Are you in the market for an investment that offers tax deductions, good appreciation and some cash flow? Mr. John J. Cox, Jr., an account executive with Merrill Lynch Pierce Fenner & Smith Inc., will tell why a Limited Partnership in Real Estate may be just the thing for you. Mr. Cox will describe how a limited partnership works, what economic and tax benefits are involved, potential risks, and how much capital you'll need to get started. Admission is free.

JAZZ CONCERT WITH THE ARVELL SHAW TRIO

Friday, January 17, 8:30 p.m.

Arvell Shaw, bassman in Louis Armstrong's famous "Allstars," will appear in concert with his trio of jazz musicians. Shaw first worked in Armstrong's big band in 1945 and joined the first Allstars when the ace trumpeter decided to revert to the small band format, thus beginning a long and close personal association. Tickets, which go on sale Jan. 4, are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students and senior citizens.

FLAMENCO DANCING WITH SOL Y SOMBRA

Friday, January 31, 8:30 p.m.

Gaiety and fiery sensuality flow when the Sol y Sombra Spanish Dance Company presents the rich mosaic of Spain's song, music and dance. The Company's repertoire includes the folkloric dances of regional Spain, the grace of classical Spanish dance, and the rhythmic excitement of gypsy Flamenco. Tempering their musical expression with exacting technique, Sol y Sombra's gifted artists evoke all the emotion synonymous with the dances of Spain. Tickets, which go on sale Jan. 18, are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students and senior citizens.

INCOME TAX TIME AGAIN!

With April 15 just around the corner, the Library can help lessen your income tax preparation burden. In addition to free copies of some federal and state income tax forms, we have a complete set of reproducible federal tax forms and reproducible forms for the Northeastern states.

The reference department also has an assortment of Federal Tax Guide Reports, published by Commerce Clearing House, which explain a variety of special tax situations. Some of the titles in this collection are Tax Aspects of Charitable Giving; Tax Benefits for Homeowners; Your Doctor, Your Druggist, and Your Taxes; Divorce: How It Affects Your Income Taxes; and Tax-Saving Plans for the Self-Employed.

Assistance in preparing your income tax will be available again this year, in both library buildings, courtesy of Hofstra's Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program. Check next month's calendar for dates and times.

NOVEL IDEAS

The Novel Ideas book discussion group will meet on Friday, January 10 at 1:00 p.m. for a discussion of Foreign Affairs by Alison Lurie. Please register with Dodie Gillman, Reference Librarian.

BOOKS ON TAPE

If you don't always have time to read a good book, how about listening to one? The Library has a diverse collection of books on cassette tape. Here's just a sampling of the titles available:

Lolita, read by James Mason

Thurber's A Cut in the Sky, read by Peter Ustinov

Stephen King's Shank Redemption and The Breathing Method

Garrison Keillor's News From Lake Wobegon

Douglas Adams' Hitch-Hikers Guide To the Galaxy and

Let Sleeping Vets Lie and Vet in Harness, read by James Herriot

COUNTDOWN TO DECISION DAY - WHICH COLLEGE FOR YOU?

It's almost time to make that big decision about which college you'll attend. You've probably reviewed all the financial aspects of your top choices as well as the course offerings and admission requirements. But have you wondered what campus life is really like? How's the social life? What's the faculty like?

The Library has several college guides that give "insider's" evaluations of selective colleges and universities. To get the real scoop on the colleges on your list take a look at these titles:

Selective Guide to Colleges, by Edward B. Fiske

An immediate best-seller when it first appeared, the latest edition is updated and expanded to include 275 colleges. Entries describe the student body, housing, social life, food, extra-curricular activities, and much more.

The Insider's Guide to the Colleges, compiled by the staff of the Yale Daily News

Students from coast to coast tell what their colleges are really like.

Lisa Birnbach's College Book, by Lisa Birnbach

Wit and accuracy characterize Birnbach's (The Official Preppy Handbook) irreverent perspective on colleges.

If you're interested in a more conventional rating of colleges, check out these books available in the reference department:

FAMILIES WHO READ ALOUD READ A LOT

Parents, did you know that by sharing your own pleasure in books you can help your children take their first steps toward the habit of reading and become better readers?

It's true and it can be fun for the whole family. The Children's Department is running a FAMILIES WHO READ ALOUD READ A LOT program starting in February. Join us in helping your children develop a habit which will bring lifelong pleasure. For further details please contact your Children's Librarians.

Children's Program

PRE-SCHOOL STORYTIME & TODDLER TIME

Early January sees the beginning of the Winter Sessions of Pre-School Storytime and Toddler Time. These programs are a delightful introduction to books and reading. The children enjoy stories, fingerplays and songs, and they benefit from interacting with others their own age. Registration is required for these programs. Please check with the Children's Librarians concerning openings.
