CHINESE COOKING

Tuesday, November 4, 7:30 p.m.

Ms. Sue Yeh of Oriental Groceries will demonstrate the techniques and basic ingredients of Chinese cooking and discuss its many regional specialties. A sampling of her cooking will highlight this mouth-watering program. No registration is necessary.

MOHAWK PLAYERS PRESENT THE BREADWINNER

Friday, November 7, 8:30 p.m.

W. Somerset Maugham's timeless comedy concerns a middle-aged father and husband who decides after 20 years to quit his unfulfilling job. What happens when his family and friends join forces to stop him makes for hilarious results. Tickets are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students and senior citizens. Ticket sales begin October 25.

ELECTRONIC MUSIC CONCERT

Friday, November 14, 8:30 p.m.

Composer Eric Ross and his wife Mary Ross, a video and computer artist, will present this exciting multimedia concert. Working in a unique, avant-garde idiom, they will perform original works combining electronic and acoustic music and video synthesis. The Rosses have performed throughout the United States and abroad, receiving high acclaim for the richness and vitality of their work. Tickets, which go on sale Nov. 1, are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students and senior citizens.

NOVEL IDEAS

The Novel Ideas book discussion group will meet on Friday, November 14 and Friday, December 12 at 1:00 p.m. In November the group will discuss Beans of Egypt, Maine by Carolyn Chute. December's meeting will focus on John Updike's Witches of Eastwick. Please register with Reference Librarian Dodie Gillman.

TAX REFORM AND YOUR INVESTMENTS

Tuesday, November 18, 7:30 p.m.

What effect will the Senate Finance Committee's proposed tax reform have on your investments? Representatives from Merrill Lynch will explain their predictions for the economic impact of tax reform, including its effect on consumer spending, housing, interest rates, the stock market and other investments. Your questions are welcome.

THE OTHER VIC THEATRE PRESENTS BUTTERFLIES ARE FREE

Friday, November 21, 8:30 p.m.

He's blind with a bent toward music. She's kooky and free-spirited with a bent toward love. His mother is blind to their love and bent on her own designs. A delightful comedy! Ticket sales begin Nov. 8. Tickets are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students and senior citizens.

ANGEL ORNAMENT WORKSHOP

Tuesday, December 2, 7:30 p.m.

Linda Windsor will teach you how to make a beautiful cut and pierced angel ornament to decorate your home or give as a gift. There is a $3.95 materials fee and registration is limited. Please sign up beginning Nov. 18.

JAZZ PIANIST DEREK SMITH

Friday, December 5, 8:30 p.m.

Derek Smith hails from London, England, where he played with Johnny Dankworth's orchestra and worked for the BBC.

Arriving in the USA he led his own trio at Basin Street East, accompanied Mel Torme, and worked in groups led by Art Mooney, Clerk Terry, Don Elliot and Benny Goodman.

He joined NBC in 1967, playing with Doc Severinsen's band on Johnny Carson's "Tonight Show" and eventually moved to ABC to do the Dick Cavett Show.

Currently he can be heard on numerous movie sound tracks (The Wiz, All that Jazz, Dressed to Kill), commercials, Muzak, records and TV backgrounds.

This performance is co-sponsored by International Art of Jazz with funding from NEA, NYSCA and the Suffolk Office of Cultural Affaris. Tickets, which go on sale Nov. 22, are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students and senior citizens.

Each year, members of the Asharoken Garden Club make the Christmas wreaths for the entrance to the Northport library, as well as the evergreen swags in the Northport Children's Room. We would like to thank them for these festive decorations!
