FOR ADULTS

The Dedications

(N) Saturday, November 2, 2:00 p.m.

Led by singer John Zollo, this vocal group performs '50's and '60's harmony, rock and roll, and ballads, as well as classic rock of the '70s and '80s, all with great musical accompaniment. Registration is underway. NENA976 This concert was rescheduled from the original date of July 23.

Long Island Dirt: Recovering Our Buried Past Through Archaeologies

(N) Thursday, November 7, 7:00 p.m.

Dr. Allison McGovern will discuss how archaeology has contributed to documenting Long Island's ancient Native American past. Referencing data from archaeological investigations on Long Island, she will discuss how Native American artifacts have been collected by amateur and professional archaeologists through time, and how the process of collecting has framed the general public's understanding of indigenous histories on Long Island. Registration is underway. NENA987

Cold Chocolate

(N) Sunday, November 10, 2:00 p.m.

Cold Chocolate is a genre-bending Americana band that fuses folk, funk, and bluegrass to create a unique sound all their own. Featuring Ethan Robbins on guitar and mandolin and Ariel Bernstein on percussion and banjo, this power duo from Boston performs at venues and music festivals across the country. Cold Chocolate has quickly gained recognition for their original music and high-energy shows. Registration is underway. NENA988

Meet the Presidents and the Oval Office

Tuesday, November 12, 7:00 p.m.

A docent from the New-York Historical Society Museum & Library will present highlights from the "Meet the Presidents" exhibition. Learn about the evolution of the presidency and executive branch and how presidents have interpreted and fulfilled their leadership roles. View artifacts including the actual Bible used during George Washington's inauguration in 1789 and a student scrapbook from 1962 chronicling John F. Kennedy's leadership during the Cuban missile crisis. Registration is underway. NENA989

Joseph P. Dwyer

Veterans Peer Support Project

(N) Wednesday, November 13, 2:00–4:00 p.m.

The Joseph P. Dwyer Veterans Peer Support Project was created to assist veterans, service members, and their families to achieve and sustain personal health, wellness, and purpose in their post-service lives through the support of trained veteran volunteers. Stop by and speak with a peer mentor to learn about free programs and services for Long Island veterans of all eras.

Unlocking the Connection Between Sleep and Dementia

Wednesday, November 13, 6:30 p.m.

This workshop presented by Family & Children's Association will explore how improving sleep may help relieve dementia symptoms. Sleep assists our brains in functioning more efficiently and effectively, and this can lead to better cognitive function and quality of life for those living with dementia. Registration is underway. NENA990 This program is cosponsored with the public libraries in the Town of Huntington.

NAC Presents! John Kouri
