The Newsletter of the Northport-East Northport Public Library

FOR ADULTS

(N) Fridays, October 2, 16, 30,
November 6 & 20, 10:00 a.m.

How have historians differed in their interpretations of the Civil War? What would it have taken for the South to win? Did Reconstruction fail? Why is the Civil War still relevant today? Join Michael Libresco-D'Innocenzo of Hofstra University for a provocative discussion of the events and issues that are still being debated 150 years later. Professor Libresco-D'Innocenzo is a founding member of the Hofstra Center for Civic Engagement. No registration required.

Volunteer Fair

(N) Wednesday, October 7
4:00-6:30 p.m.

When we volunteer our time and talents we improve the lives of others, strengthen our community, connect with one another, and transform our own lives. Come to the Library's Volunteer Fair and speak with representatives from local organizations that are actively seeking volunteers. Participants will include the Cold Spring Harbor Whaling Museum, Family Service League, Good Shepherd Hospice, Guide Dog Foundation for the Blind, League for Animal Protection, Long Island Cares, Make-A-Wish, Meals on Wheels, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Northport Historical Society, Relay for Life, RSVP, SeniorNet, Walt Whitman Birthplace, and others. No registration required.

An Afternoon with Laurel & Hardy
