FOR CHILDREN

Read to Your Baby!

Our Summer Reading Club for babies and toddlers (birth to 2 years) July 1-July 30

Build early learning skills with your baby or toddler while having fun. By sharing books with your children, you show them that reading is important while actually helping them get ready to read. Children's learning starts at home and you are your child's first and best teacher. We encourage you to introduce your baby or toddler to the magic and wonder of books. Our Children's Librarians will be happy to provide you with book suggestions. Come into the Library beginning July 1 and receive a reading record, a bookmark, and an adorable magnetic photo frame to get you started. You may also register online and print out your own reading record. Read 20 books to your baby or toddler during the month, show your completed reading record to a Children's Librarian between August 1 and August 12, and your child will receive a free book for their collection as well as a special surprise. (NENJ570)

Take Home Crafts

Outdoor Concerts in the Library Courtyard

Young Rebel Goombas

(N) Tuesday, July 12, 7:30 p.m.

Young Rebel Goombas blend rock 'n' roll, reggae, jazz, and world rhythms to form a super-charged tropical rock sound. The band consists of Emmy-winning musicians and composers Richie Saccante and Cosmo Mallardi, as well as versatile guitarist Kevin McCann and the powerhouse percussion duo of Brian "Uncle Bee" Johnson and Randy Knudsen. Registration is underway at either library building or online. In the event of rain, the concert will be held in the Library's Community Room and ticket holders will be seated first. (NENA248)

The Isotope Stompers

(N) Tuesday, July 26, 7:30 p.m.

Get ready to clap your hands and tap your feet with The Isotope Stompers, an exhilarating seven-piece Dixieland Jazz band. Their musical inspiration comes from New Orleans where the foot-stomping music called "jazz" grew out of the spirituals and marches of Bourbon Street. Some of the band's popular Dixieland tunes include "Tiger Rag," "When the Saints Go Marching In," "Muskrat Ramble," "Tin Roof Blues," and "Wonderful World," among others. Registration begins July 2 at either library building or online. In the event of rain, the concert will be held in the Library's Community Room and ticket holders will be seated first. (NENA254)

Time Was

(N) Wednesday, August 17, 7:30 p.m.

Enjoy the memorable classics of the '50s, '60s, and '70s with Time Was, a seven-member ensemble that includes a four-man vocal section. Musicians Arnie Karr (keyboard), Dom De Paolo

(guitar), Jamie Holmdan (drums), and vocalists Tony Ventiera, Tom Scotti, Bob Cannizzaro, and Frank Rosetta will perform favorites from The Platters, The Drifters, The Four Seasons, The Beach Boys, The Temptations, and more. Registration begins July 16 at either library building or online. In the event of rain, the concert will be held in the Library's Community Room and ticket holders will be seated first. (NENA255)

FOR ADULTS

Do-ing Music presents OperAlive!

(N) Friday, July 22, 7:30 p.m.

Long Island's new and exciting ensemble OperAlive! will perform works by Mozart, Verdi, Puccini, Bizet, and others. Ensemble members include sopranos Gina Haver, Julie Anne Meixsell, and Ruthann Turekian; tenor Bruce Solomon; baritone Ron Meixsell; and pianist Daniel Ragone. In the short time that OperAlive! has been together, they have performed at the Steinway Gallery, the Setauket House, and Dowling College. Experience the beauty of the music and the passion of the drama in the all-encompassing art form which is opera. A meet-the-artists reception will follow. No registration required.

Current Events in Perspective

(N) Thursday, July 28, 7:30 p.m.

Michael Libresco-D'Innocenzo, professor of history at Hofstra University, will explore significant national and international developments. All attending the program are welcome to share their views. No registration required.

Northport Arts Coalition presents "Summertime and the Folding is Easy"

(N) Wednesday, July 13, 7:00 p.m.

The Northport Arts Coalition, in cooperation with the Library, invites you to celebrate summer through the magic of Origami. Instructor Steve Terr will show you how to transform square pieces of colorful paper into doves, grasshoppers, jumping frogs, wriggling fish, a beautiful butterfly, and more. Hands-on participation will be limited to 20 patrons (ages 9 and up), but all others are invited to come and view the demonstration. Registration begins July 1 at either library building or online. (NENA256)

Acupuncture

(N) Thursday, August 4, 7:30 p.m.

Heather Romano M.S., L.Ac. will explore the history of acupuncture and the functions of Qi in the body. She will provide an overview of how acupuncture can be used in pain management and in the treatment of allergies, menopause, irritable bowel syndrome, and other conditions. No registration required.

The Job Connection: Employment at SUNY Stony Brook

(N) Thursday, August 11, 7:00 p.m.

Back by popular demand, representatives from Stony Brook's human resources department will give tips on searching for both New York State and SUNY Stony Brook jobs. They will describe the JOBS website, provide information on the State civil service process, and share tips for preparing your resume. No registration required.

Health Services for Veterans

(EN) Thursday, July 14, 10:00 a.m.
(N) Tuesday, July 19, 7:00 p.m.

The Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Northport provides veterans with comprehensive health services in the areas of medicine, surgery, psychiatry, physical medicine, rehabilitation, neurology, oncology, dentistry, geriatrics, and extended care. Representatives from the VA will describe these many programs with special attention to MyHeatheVet, their website for medical services, the Telehealth Program, community-based outpatient clinics, and the Women's Health Program. No registration required.

Page Turners

(N) Thursday, July 14, 2:00 p.m.

Join Donna Diamond for a discussion of 1776 by David McCullough. Copies of the book are available at the Northport Library Circulation Desk.

Library Welcomes New Board Member

The Board of Trustees of the Northport-East Northport Public Library is pleased to welcome new trustee Margaret Hartough, who was elected to the Board in April.

Mrs. Hartough has lived in the Northport-East Northport community for nearly 30 years. Working part-time while raising her four children, Mrs. Hartough was a circulation clerk at the Library and eventually earned her masters degree to become a reference librarian. She is now Head of the Teen Services Department at the Half Hollow Hills Community Library.

When asked about her new role as trustee, Mrs. Hartough replied, "The Northport-East Northport Public Library has always been a special place for me and my family. My children spent many hours at the library, and benefited from all the great resources and wonderful programs. I believe the Library is truly the heart of the community and strong libraries build strong communities. I am looking forward to bringing my love of libraries and our community to my new position on the Board."

"But what if I don't have a Library card?"

If you don't already have a Library card, this would be the perfect time to obtain one. As a resident of the Northport-East Northport district, you are entitled to and can apply for your new Library card at any time. Visit the Circulation Desk in either the Northport or East Northport building, present two forms of identification with your name, current address, (for example: a driver's license, utility, or tax bill), and we will mail your new Library card to you. It's that simple. (NENA258) *limit of one coupon booklet per patron per calendar year
