The Northport Rotary Jazz Concert presents

The Shenole Latimer Quartet

Friday, November 9, 7:30 p.m.
Northport Library

The Library is pleased to present award-winning saxophonist Shenole Latimer and his jazz quartet. Described as "a young jazz star on the rise," Latimer has gained recognition for his fiery performances and engaging stage presence. His passionate approach to playing the saxophone reflects the influence of Michael Brecker, John Coltrane, and Kenny Garrett. Through the course of his career, Latimer has shared the stage with noted jazz musicians such as Jon Faddis, Todd Coolman, E.J. Strickland, and Dan Faulk, with whom he studied for several years. His growing list of accomplishments include numerous radio interviews, television appearances, and several listener's choice awards. In 2006 he released his debut album "Front and Center" with Tierra Records.

The audience will have the opportunity to meet the performers and to enjoy refreshments following the performance. This program is cosponsored by the Northport Rotary Club. Tickets, which go on sale November 1, are $1 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens, and persons with disabilities.

Randolph Herr & His Pianola

(N) Friday, November 30, 7:30 p.m.
Wouldn't it be wonderful if you could play the piano like a virtuoso? Imagine being able to create note-perfect performances or having a repertoire larger than any pianist who ever lived. Does this sound too good to be true?

In the late 1800s the Aeolian Company manufactured a player piano called the Pianola, an automatic device that was capable of producing exquisite sound. Some of the finest pianists of the era recorded rolls for the Pianola. Join Randolph Herr, an expert on player pianos, for a rare opportunity to hear a Pianola in concert. Mr. Herr has acquired some of the finest player pianos ever made, including the Steinway Pianola Pianos, as well as the finest and most historically important piano rolls ever created.

In this program, Mr. Herr will play a recently acquired roll by Dr. Max Bruch playing an arrangement of his Violin Concerto. Mr. Herr will also play several rarely heard rolls including Liszt's "La Sonnambula" performed by Arthur Friedheim, and works by Liszt performed by Alexander Siloti. Free tickets are available November 3 at both library buildings.

Northport Arts Coalition presents The Reader's Theater

(N) Wednesday, November 14, 7:00 p.m.

The Northport Arts Coalition, in cooperation with the Library, presents the Northport Reader's Theater performing "Way Out Here" by local playwright Douglas MacLeod. This poignant one-act play is about a budding young love in the time of World War II. Among the performers will be actor John Shea, best known to television audiences for his recurring role as the evil Lex Luthor in "Lois & Clark: The New Adventures of Superman." Mr. Shea has acted in many plays, movies, and TV shows. The reading will be followed by a discussion led by the play's author, and then an audience participation reading. All are welcome.

Tanzania Photo Adventure

(N) Thursday, November 1, 7:30 p.m.

Join world travelers and photographers Carole and Richard Witkover for a multimedia excursion to Tanzania, Africa. In 2006 the Witkovers traveled with a group of fellow photographers to Tanzania's four National Parks, Masai villages, and local schools. During their photographic safari they encountered breathtaking landscapes, lions, elephants, giraffes, baboons, antelope, and many species of birds. Don't miss this unique opportunity to visit Tanzania. A question and answer period will follow the presentation. All are welcome.

Children's Book Week

November 12-18, 2007

Since 1919 Children's Book Week has been celebrated the week before Thanksgiving. Founded by the Children's Book Council, Children's Book Week introduces young people to new authors and ideas in libraries, schools, homes, and bookstores.

In celebration of this annual event, the Children's Librarians of the Northport-East Northport Public Library would like to share this list of some of their recent favorite books for children.

Granny Torrelli Makes Soup by Sharon Creech
Using food and stories from her childhood, Rosie's grandmother teaches her about life and friendship.

Joey Pigza Swallowed the Key by Jack Gantos
Being energetic and having difficulty staying on task plunges Joey into many wild situations at home and at school.

Joseph Had a Little Overcoat by Simms Taback
You can always make something out of nothing, or so the saying goes. Simms Taback tells a wonderful tale in this colorfully-illustrated and poignant book about a poor man and his ragged coat.

The King of Mulberry Street by Donna Jo Napoli
New York City street life in 1892 comes to life as Dom, a 19-year-old stowaway from Naples, learns to survive in the streets of lower Manhattan.

Kira-Kira by Cynthia Kadohata
Set in the 1950s, this book tells of the struggles, joys, and heartbreak of a Japanese-American family that moves to a predominately white town in rural Georgia.

The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane by Kate DiCamillo
Life turns on a dime when a fine porcelain rabbit, who hates being described as a doll, falls headlong into an adventure story full of extraordinary wonder.

The Penderwicks: A Summer Tale of Four Sisters, Two Rabbits, and a Very Interesting Boy by Jeanne Birdsall
Four very different but spunky sisters spend their summer vacation in a cottage on an estate, getting into adventures and near-disasters as they befriend the owner's son.

Saffy's Angel by Hilary McKay
Unforgettable characters come alive in this humorous and absorbing story about the artistic Casson family and the search for Saffy's stone angel.

The Spider and the Fly by Mary Howitt
Hauntingly beautiful, this is the melancholy cautionary tale of Ms. Fly who learns soon enough that not everyone who talks sweetly offers sweets.

The Thief Lord by Cornelia Funke
This novel is an adventure with a dash of mystery and magic about two runaway boys in Venice.

The Three Pigs by David Wiesner
In this fun and unique version of the traditional tale, the three pigs make a surprising escape from the Big Bad Wolf and meet up with characters from familiar fairy tales.

Why Did the Chicken Cross the Road? by Maria Frazee
The possible answers to this age-old question are as varied as the 14 popular children's book illustrators who provide the humorous and creative responses in this book.

The Story of Winnie-the-Pooh

Winnie-the-Pooh, first created by author Alan Alexander (A. A.) Milne in 1926, is quite possibly the most famous teddy bear in the world. The stuffed bear was given to Milne's son, Christopher Robin, on his first birthday. Over the years, Christopher acquired other stuffed animals: Eeyore, Piglet, Tigger, Kanga, and Roo. They all became characters in stories set in the Hundred Acre Wood, the surrounding area of Milne's country home, Cotchford Farm in Ashdown Forest, Sussex, England. Rabbit and Owl were based on animals that lived in the woods.

Since 1987, the original Pooh and four of his best friends—Eeyore, Piglet, Kanga, and Tigger—have been living in the Central Children's Room at the Donnell Library Center of The New York Public Library in New York City.

The Northport-East Northport Public Library owns a large number of fine editions of the Winnie-the-Pooh stories, many illustrated by A. A. Milne's artistic collaborator Ernest H. Shepard. Also in the collection are Winnie-the-Pooh theme books, audio books, and videos. A sampling follows:

The House at Pooh Corner by A. A. Milne

Now We Are Six by A. A. Milne

The Pooh Cook Book by Virginia Ellison

The Pooh Craft Book by Carol S. Friedrichsen

Three Cheers for Pooh: The Best Bear In All the World by Brian Sibley

When We Were Very Young by A. A. Milne
