

FOR ADULTS

“The Eclectics” Jazz Concert (N) Wednesday, July 26, 7:30 p.m.

“The Eclectics” are so named because they teach in different departments at Northport High School. Known among colleagues and students for their instrumental jazz and blues, they’ve performed for over six years at benefit concerts, faculty functions, the annual high school variety show, and yes, a wedding. “The Eclectics” include Tom Driscoll (English) on guitar, Glenn Baldwin (English) on piano, John Ritz (Spanish) on trumpet, Rich Nunziato (Art) on bass, and Sandy Scarpinito (Social Studies) on drums. All are welcome.

Adult CPR Course

Carnival Masks of the Dominican Republic: Slide Show & Exhibit

(EN) Friday, July 7, 7:30 p.m.
Carnival masks have been part of Dominican tradition since the 1800s. The masks typically depict mythological animal figures and people in comical representations. Artist Ivan Erickson, recipient of a Community Connections Artist Grant from the New York State Council on the Arts, will introduce the unique art of traditional Dominican carnival masks. His slides will present an introduction to the history and customs of his native country, background on carnival traditions, and the techniques of mask-making. All are welcome.

This program is made possible in part with public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts. In Suffolk County the Decentralization Program is administered by the Huntington Arts Council, Inc.

Carnival Masks Workshop

(EN) Saturday, July 8, 10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon

EXHIBITS

Northport Gallery:
"Mouse in the City" by Kate Kelly
Kate Kelly, visual artist and poet, has been showing her art in galleries in New York City and on Long Island for 20 years. Her visual works range from "ladder sculptures," created by working with branches, to vividly painted "buoy masks." She also works in the more traditional mediums of oil and acrylic. Most recently she has used an iMac computer to recreate earlier pieces. Her new show, "Mouse in the City," is comprised of prints from original photographs taken in NYC when she lived in Greenwich Village. Most of the images are taken from slides of walls in lower Manhattan and Soho which, during the 1980s, were an alive and exciting record of the art scene at the time.

East Northport Gallery & Display Case:
Carnival Masks by Ivan Erickson (July 7-30)
Artist Ivan Erickson exhibits carnival masks created in the tradition of Dominican mask-making. (See page 2 for details on his slide show and workshop.)

Floral Decorations:
Northport: Arrangement courtesy of Flower Basket.

Kerouac: Off the Shelf

Jack Kerouac, one of the most notable writers of the Beat Generation, lived in Northport during the late 1950s and early 1960s and was a frequent library user. In anticipation of Kerouac's Northport, an exhibit at the Northport Historical Society and Museum which begins July 9, the Library is publishing Kerouac: Off the Shelf, An Annotated Bibliography of Resources in the Northport-East Northport Public Library. This bibliography, compiled by the Library's Reference Staff, represents its extensive Kerouac holdings.

Kerouac: Off the Shelf will be available at the exhibit's opening. It contains not only the Library's book collection on and by Kerouac, but also sound recordings, videos, periodicals, photographs, and ephemera. Included are lists of annual festivals, Kerouac organizations, bookstores, and Internet sites. A typescript of The Town and the City, his first book, was donated to the Library by Kerouac. The collection also has a transcript and audiotape of an oral history interview granted to the Library's Assistant Director Miklos Zsedely in 1964. Recently, artist Stanley Twardowicz gave the Library copies of Kerouac material in his possession. Items from the Kerouac collection will be featured in the Library throughout the summer. Copies of Kerouac: Off the Shelf will be available for purchase at the Library.

The cover and back page of this newsletter show the typescript of The Town and the City which is in the Library's collection.

July 2000

Kerouac: Off the Shelf

... called on the ferry to Staten Island, and quoted poetry at dawn
... One Saturday night they were walking along dark brown streets
... the Sixth Avenue when a strange thing happened
... happened in New York. They were just crossing the cobblestones underneath dark gardens of the Third Avenue at, in the dark half-
... and sudden darkness revealed here that range of miles along the ... length of the traffic street when they saw an ill-kempt man
... someone light him up. And at the same moment
... saw two men strolling nearby, two tall, thin men, who were, inex-
